Prolog

Welcome you to the interpretation of your transit chart.

A transit happens when the planets in their current positions form aspects to the planets in your birth chart. Also interpreted are current planetary positions in your natal chart houses. The multitude of possible combinations makes of a constant formation of transits, this can be observed in everybody's chart. The transits of slow orbiting planets give the aspects a generational characteristic, because entire age groups are equally effected. The house position of these slow moving transit planets are of special importance and it might be useful to consider their aspects in the natal chart.

How can the interpretations help?

In any case, they shouldn't bring anyone to passively accept the course of events, convinced that they are at the mercy of their fate. Especially for the more challenging transits, people have a choice and must accept full responsibility for the circumstances of their lives. Also the interpretations should not serve to prevent people from leaving their house without first making sure that "the stars are in a favorable position".

It is especially productive to keep an eye on the transits of the slow moving planets because they develop over longer periods of time and usually describe important phases of your life. Their interpretations will therefore be presented in more detail. When a planet goes retrograde, you will encounter the same information three times: when the first aspect forms you will experience something new, it will then be intensified on the trip back and then on the next pass can be put to practical use.

It may be irritating when two or more contradictory interpretations are equally valid for the same transit. This becomes as problematic as the interpretation of the natal chart, due to the computer's inherent inability to instill sensitivity into the interpretations. Additionally, everyone experiences different needs and ambitions at the same time occasionally.

The meaning of the transiting Sun

The Sun moves approximately one degree every day. So it travels through all 12 houses in your chart in a year and emphasizes all the important areas of life one after another. It tells you the areas to which you should devote your attention, tells you about sources from which you can draw energy and tells you about your general concerns. The aspects between the Sun and the planets of your birth chart (especially with the Sun itself) tell us about our state of health. As the representative for your life energy, personality, your will power and self expression, the transit aspects of the Sun also describe your current mental strength.

The transiting Sun in your first house

from 07/01/2009 until: 07/04/2009 3:00:00 PM

When the Sun is in the first house it has just passed the Ascendant. The first house is associated with the self so that you can count on receiving new energies, which you can probably use. Your own affairs should be very important to you at this time and maybe you will also find answers which you have been looking for a long time. You should have enough strength and energy to present yourself in a positive light and to secure your position in life. Still you should try to maintain objectivity when dealing with others because at this point in time you have a tendency to overemphasize your own problems. On the other hand, this could be a time for you to develop your creativity and maybe even make changes to your self image.

The transiting Sun in your second house

from 07/03/2009 4:00:00 PM until: 07/23/2009 2:00:00 PM

Currently your primary concern is improving your income, although you would also like to think about the meaning your possessions have for you. Possibly you try to free yourself from the obligations of everyday life concerning money, property or other valuables. You could learn not to overestimate the material aspect of life and share your resources with needy people. In this context ethical and moral questions can become more meaningful for you.

Maybe you will acquire things which you have been planning for a long time. Rethink your attitude toward money and possessions - you could have fruitful insights.

The transiting Sun in your third house

from 07/22/2009 3:00:00 PM until: 08/01/2009

The third house stands for communication both generally and within your closest relationships. The Sun in transit emphasizes the everyday relationship to neighbors, siblings and friends. Probably you are now ready to take a closer look at the way you treat other people and maybe make some changes. Presently you are sociable, curious and entertaining, which is why it is easy for you to find the right words. You should open yourself to others and if you want to devote yourself to new fields, don't hesitate. Just pay attention that in conversations you give others a chance to talk. Don't try to always be the center of attention. Keep calm and stay in the background. Let new information take effect, that never hurts anybody. This transit will stimulate your intellect, so that you can let yourself get into unusual situations.

The transiting Sun in Opposition with your Moon

from 07/23/2009 4:00:00 AM until: 07/25/2009 7:00:00 AM

In this phase your will and your life energy will confront your emotional world; you will be challenged to think about whether you are emotionally in tune with your ambitions. The Moon also stands for the situation at home. Possibly there is a minor disagreement at home, but never fear, this transit won't bring anything Earth shattering, only a short period where in your own feelings with respect to the way you conduct your life are made conscious. If you have difficulties expressing your feelings, give yourself a break today and withdraw to contemplate. This transit is too short-lived to leave a lasting impression, but you will see clearly, that you are up to the challenges of daily life.

The transiting Sun in Opposition with your Mercury

from 07/22/2009 6:00:00 PM until: 07/24/2009 8:00:00 PM

Today you may react annoyed when you meet people. Somehow you want to confide in others and try to get involved in deep conversations. Possibly you can't see your position very clearly which confuses others. At this time you find it difficult to concentrate; it would be better to allow yourself a few hours of rest in solitude or go out and enjoy yourself. Even if listening to others isn't your strong point right at the moment, you should do your best because this is one of the challenges of this transit. Satisfying communication includes the art of giving your undivided attention to someone else, today you may find listening to others animating.

The transiting Sun in Trine with your Venus

from 07/22/2009 1:00:00 PM until: 07/24/2009 3:00:00 PM

Today you are creative and feel great on all levels. As the center of attention, you treat everyone especially affectionately. It isn't your intention just to take, you also want to give to others. The harmonious energies are flowing towards an enjoyable encounter with a member of the opposite sex. Judging by the attention your charm arouses, you can expect it to have positive effects. Have a good time, go to the theater or a concert, buy yourself something nice. Today you won't be prone to overdo things. This would be a good day for a party, where you can meet people in a relaxed atmosphere. Looking back on this day will be especially satisfying.

The transiting Sun in Square with your Jupiter

from 07/07/2009 9:00:00 AM until: 07/09/2009 11:00:00 AM

Today you feel your strength, but don't see the world very positively. Actually you are capable of devoting yourself to useful consideration, but let yourself be tempted to push this off onto others. As with every transit involving Jupiter, things will center around expansion. Because this aspect is challenging in its own way, watch out for excesses, which includes loading yourself with responsibility and obligations. Just because you are good at convincing others that you are able to handle everything, doesn't make it true. Sometimes you may seem arrogant and act too spontaneously because you are too sure of yourself. Even if you find it difficult, it is important to allow other people enough space.

The transiting Sun in Sextile with your Uranus

from 07/01/2009 until: 07/01/2009 2:00:00 AM

Today the Sun will enter a sextile aspect with Uranus, a planet which often brings surprises. Today your daily jog might be characterized by the fact that it isn't daily, which is fine with you. At the moment you can experience that there are exciting things in life which get lost among the day to day routines. If a friend invites you to do something unusual today which wouldn't ordinarily fit with your conventions, you should respond enthusiastically because now you are ready for it. This is what will fulfill the purpose of this transit. It should remind you that there are things in life which are positive, unexpected and are worth following up on. Flexibility is the motto of this transit. You know that and can expect to encounter the unexpected joyfully.

The transiting Sun in Trine with your Neptune

from 07/08/2009 2:00:00 PM until: 07/10/2009 4:00:00 PM

Today the Sun will enter a trine aspect with the planet Neptune and you will sense a deep longing to confront other people's problems and concerns. Being able to hold Neptune's overcast temperament in check, you will see no need to seek escape in reverie. Because the trine is an aspect which favors pleasant circumstances think about something that you can get out and do today. Even if it isn't necessarily six right numbers in the lottery, you will have your chance to be of service to others. This constellation will keep your ego powers under control. During the course of the day you should receive plenty of opportunity to stock up on positive karma. In addition, your present constitution is conducive to research in a field such as Astrology.

The transiting Sun in Sextile with your Pluto

from 07/04/2009 until: 07/06/2009 2:00:00 AM

This transit will allow you to live the day with high intensity. The Sun which embodies the will and life energy is entering a challenging sextile aspect with Pluto, the planet responsible for revolution and regeneration. This is a brief harmonious transit which will allow you to influence your environment. Your positive influence will make you aware of how important it is to keep your ego powers in check. This is also an appropriate time to relax both your body and mind with a visit to the sauna, for example. That would stir up powers within you and the pleasant exhaustion which takes over afterwards will put you into a regenerative sleep and allows you to wake up refreshed.

The meaning of the transiting Mercury

Mercury in the houses shows which areas of life you have been learning about and which topics could inspire you even to the point of leading you to do research in these fields. Mercury's transit aspects can help you to recognize the way you confront people around you, how you approach problems and how you structure communicative contact to other people, whereby in classical Astrology your relationships to your neighbors and siblings are of special importance.

If Mercury is in transit with several planets, it will cause excitement and confusion, will challenge your intellect but not destabilize your life. Also shorter trips, which may be for business, are ruled by Mercury.

Transiting Mercury in your first house

from 07/01/2009 until: 07/10/2009 6:00:00 AM

Mercury has passed your Ascendant and you might be more occupied with your own points of view than before. You have more dialogs with yourself and talk to others about yourself as well. Intellectually stimulated, your reason is operating at full tilt. It will be important to deal with yourself honestly, although it may be difficult. If you exert yourself you will advance in this area. It would be good if you were to initiate activities which you have been intending to take on for a long time and through which you hope to develop. Still you could easily let yourself be distracted and get out of breath half way there. Concentrate on the important things, that is what will bring you to new insights about yourself.

Transiting Mercury in your second house

from 07/09/2009 7:00:00 AM until: 07/18/2009 6:00:00 PM

Mercury in the house of values and possessions tells you that you are concerned about your income and security. Financial affairs should be integrated into this phase, you probably have come up with a lot of new ideas in this area. This period will support your attempts in the context of your many charitable activities to find solutions for problems which are satisfactory for everyone involved.

This isn't everything in life. It would help you to take a closer look at the spiritual and emotional values you may have been neglecting. It has become easier for you to take a stand, but the Mercury principle may prevent decisions from enduring and becoming definitive.

Transiting Mercury in your third house

from 07/17/2009 7:00:00 PM until: 07/29/2009 11:00:00 PM

The third house corresponds to Gemini. Its planet is Mercury. In this house there is a lot of communication and intellectual exchange going on. Mercury feels at home, which may express itself in short periods of rest which serve as mental regeneration. This will bring you into contact with people who make you feel at ease. This is not necessarily the time to make new decisions, its more pressing to recharge your mental battery and to keep your thinking flexible. Neighbors and all your relatives, but especially brothers and sisters may play an important role in this process. If you are able to limit your enthusiasm and euphoria, you should be given enough energy to tackle the tasks awaiting you.

Transiting Mercury in your fourth house

from 07/29/2009 until: 08/01/2009

In this period of time you will become more aware of the need for spiritual and mental stability. If you withdraw somewhat from every day experiences, it will not be to your disadvantage. Life at home will receive special attention in this phase, but don't hesitate to make your observations from a safe distance, it won't do you any harm. If you live with your family, you will be able to make plans efficiently or talk about things that have happened which caused tension or which were especially moving. The fourth house is associated with Cancer, which means you may start to dig up your past or follow up on one of your dreams. There is no reason to deny yourself these experiences as long as you keep both feet on the ground.

Transiting Mercury in Opposition with your Sun

from 07/28/2009 12:00:00 PM until: 07/29/2009 3:00:00 PM

This morning expect to have some hated routine task waiting for you which will bring you together with people you would rather avoid. It could involve preparing the quarterly financial statement or conducting an inventory. The opposition aspect's challenging nature may encourage the unloading of conflict potential. If you aren't careful to express yourself clearly and understandably it could easily lead to misunderstandings. Before you go into action, it would be more effective to take other people's standpoints into consideration because you are prone to a rather subjective way of seeing things at present. If you hold on to your views dogmatically, you could find yourself isolated at the end of this hectic day.

Transiting Mercury in Opposition with your Moon

from 07/18/2009 until: 07/19/2009

Today the planet Mercury, which stands for communication and the intellect, is entering a challenging opposition aspect with the Moon, which embodies your emotions. Logic doesn't have a lot of room in your life, as you prefer to respond from your gut although this doesn't necessarily meet with everyone's approval. Under this transit objective thought and action aren't exactly your strengths, which may cause problems because others may not be prepared to deal with you. Because a Moon aspect will traditionally help you to get along with women, it can be assumed that you will have conflicts with women today, although it could also be referring to your mother. Maybe you will fight with her today, but don't let that take up too much time, it would be better to develop a feeling for her nurturing motherly qualities.

Before you get depressed, ask an older person for advice who may help you to recognize the silver lining.

Because your thought processes are operating on levels reaching far beneath the surface, it would be a good idea to take a closer look at the so-called alternative sciences, such as Astrology.

Primarily this planet stands naturally for love and harmony. In this case you should try to judge correctly and provide help for self help, or you could find yourself being used. Venus in the house of Neptune sometimes conjures up dreams of the selfless salvation of lost souls, and you should not expect to be thanked for your efforts.

On the other hand, you may be inspired to give your creativity free run and will probably wonder how much talent is slumbering within you. At this time you are especially vulnerable and should therefore postpone difficult confrontations.

Lovers' quarrels accompanied by unpleasant events can come about and cause you to look out for your own interests. Maybe your ideas about enjoyment are similar to those of your partner or maybe you are upset about your credit card bill. This time is also favorable for having a good time at parties with a lot of people. Maybe you are eager to let your credit card off its leash for a while. If there is no special danger involved, it helps to use this transit to treat yourself to simple pleasures.

Even if this transit is conducive to relationships, it will take a long term transit to get a new serious relationship started. Today Venus will enter a square with Saturn, the planet of responsibility, reason and limitations, which will be inharmonious. You can only hope that the day will be over soon, although an easygoing Venus wouldn't let itself in on an aspect with a cumbersome Saturn without good reasons. You worry about the condition of your relationships; some people may interpret your coolness and distance as a sign of rejection. If you should fall into depression you will be able to overcome it and enjoy yourself. Treat yourself to something special, even if money is tight. Maybe you will initiate a family reunion or just spend the day with one of your parents or an older relative, probably you will be in the mood to listen to someone who has a lot more experience than you.

Transiting Venus in Square with your Uranus

from 07/12/2009 1:00:00 AM until: 07/13/2009 8:00:00 PM

Be careful not to fuss at your partner. Maybe you feel coerced into breaking out of your dutiful role in order to experience wild and crazy things. On your search for pleasure, you aren't actually so sure about what kind of things you are looking for. It's not that there are any objections to amusement as such, but under this transit it is likely that you will come to regret things that you do.

Even if you can't stand boredom at the moment, don't project your needs onto others without first considering if it is justified. If you can keep yourself in check and take time to reflect, you should be able to recognize the dangers of this aspect and hold yourself back. This doesn't imply that you necessarily have to confront serious topics today; there will be time for that later.

Transiting Venus in Square with your Pluto

from 07/16/2009 7:00:00 AM until: 07/18/2009 2:00:00 AM

It may come to jealous scenes which will serve to make you more aware of your feelings. Show that you are capable of learning and that you don't necessarily always have to have your own way, it could save the situation.

There is the danger that your emotions will put you under pressure to create harmony. If this is so, then the foolishness of this venture will soon be evident. The problems people have in dealing with each other can be solved by staying cool. Be honest and accept that every individual has an own concept of love and partnership. Be careful around new contacts for the time being. If you can get your passions and instincts under control you should experience intensive feelings today, which get something going.

The meaning of the transiting Mars

In contrast to the previously mentioned planets, which all travel quickly, Mars needs a little more time to move through a house. On the average it takes two or three months; when Mars is retrograde it may take twice as long.

When Mars is transiting a house it tells in which area you should invest your energy and from where you receive your motivation. Mars gives the energy to live and to achieve. Also sexuality, aggression and achievement are all associated with Mars. Its transits describe the way you go about things; hard and inconsiderate or "only" determined and energetic. A weak Mars can make it difficult for you to assert yourself and defend your interests, because you lack faith in your own powers. Mars determines the "Ego" of a person, also setting egotistical goals, the root of all evil in our world. Still this energy is necessary to assert yourself and to develop further.

Transiting Mars in your twelfth house

from 07/01/2009 until: 08/01/2009

Mars' trip through your chart is approaching the finish line. Before it begins the cycle again, it will have to cross the hurdle of the twelfth house. It would be ideal if you were to use this phase for energetic introspection. The best way to go about this is something you will have to decide for yourself. Some retreat to a Buddhist monastery and maintain silence for ten days. This doesn't necessarily have to be your approach, but you have generally less strength and energy than usual and should therefore give yourself a rest. This time will be put to the best use if you reflect on where your energy is being channeled and consider if helping others wouldn't have positive effects. This phase is both a conclusion and a new beginning.

Transiting Mars in Square with your Sun

from 07/01/2009 until: 07/02/2009 3:00:00 AM

Even though this is a challenging transit, you have an enormous energy reserve. But you should use it sparingly because you may not see through the various interests of the people around you. At the moment your concern with your own affairs could eventually lead others to accuse you of being egotistical or inconsiderate. It could go so far as to make you the focal point of their criticism. For that reason it would be good to be aware of the danger and remember to think about others, although it may be difficult. A certain willingness to compromise would do you good, but it will involve restricting yourself. If you can keep a cool head, you will be able to accomplish amazing things during this transit. Just don't let your enthusiasm for work get out of hand, even with all the energy you have at your disposal you could take on too much if you aren't careful.

Transiting Mars in Trine with your Moon

from 07/12/2009 9:00:00 PM until: 07/15/2009 6:00:00 PM

During this time you will be predisposed to act on impulse, since your drive will be in harmony with your feelings. Momentarily, you can be sure of receiving support from people around you. As determined as you are to assert yourself, you are never inconsiderate of others and respond to all situations with appropriate sensitivity. Efforts to explain to others why you choose to act the way you do, should lead to mutual understanding. Once in a while you may act impulsively, because intellectualizing isn't one of your strengths. In romance, you may feel intensely and may experience exciting life affairs. Projects requiring a strong emotional commitment will be especially successful.

The present inner harmony with yourself can generate enough energy to start on a project requiring a strong emotional commitment.

Transiting Mars in Trine with your Mercury

from 07/12/2009 7:00:00 AM until: 07/15/2009 3:00:00 AM

At present you have a special aptitude for convincing others of your point of view. You express yourself clearly and it seems you are pretty sure of yourself. Creating a positive image, should be no problem. Your friends have come to count on your support, so they don't hold it against you when you act in your own interest on occasion. Under this transit you will be better able to understand other points of view and find ways of resolving conflicts with diplomacy.

Faith in your intellectual capacity supports your public speaking and the like. Even business negotiations are often in your favor. Use the time to further your education or to take care of strenuous intellectual work, you will be able to concentrate for longer periods of time during this transit.

Transiting Mars in Sextile with your Venus

from 07/12/2009 until: 07/14/2009 8:00:00 PM

During this transit you will hold a special erotic attraction and feel a heightened interest in physical love. Because Mars is forming a harmonious sextile transit to your natal Venus, you won't be likely to neglect tenderness and you'll be interested in seeing to the satisfaction of these desires. In an existing relationship passion may be renewed or a new relationship may come into being.

During this period of time you will invest a lot of energy in all kinds of pleasures, the wilder the better. It's important to you to express your energy in playfulness and get it out of your system. An athletic competition or team sport may be just what you are looking for. People shouldn't be surprised if you are seen at various parties or dancing classes. You are especially creative and may even amaze yourself. If you take advantage of this transit, it will open a lot of possibilities.

Transiting Mars in Square with your Mars

from 07/01/2009 until: 07/03/2009 6:00:00 PM

This is a transit rich in energy. Under it's influence be wary of risky and impulsive behavior, otherwise you may be on the brink of losing friends. You demonstrate an ability to assert yourself with courage and energy, although your plans may be so egocentric and ambitious that other people fear being forced out of the limelight. Mars emphasizes instincts and powers of ego, which may make some people insensitive, defiant and argumentative. Suppressed complexes may crop up in the form of aggression.

It would be best to devote all of your energy to simple tasks. Take care that you have the opportunity to get things out of your system on a physical level, that will help to balance your temperament. Be careful in dealing with dangerous machinery. And don't confuse the freeway with Indianapolis.

Transiting Mars in Square with your Saturn

from 07/03/2009 2:00:00 PM until: 07/06/2009 10:00:00 AM

During this time you may find it difficult to take care of the routine work which has to be done, because you are impatient. Maybe you feel like you have been mistreated and discriminated, although that actually might not be the case. You're suffering from an energy backed up, and that can be frustrating. It could make it difficult for you to find self confirmation and assert yourself. It could distort your self image and cause you to doubt yourself. Even well intended criticism may offend you, but it won't help if you expect everyone to wear velvet gloves around you.

Here you will require another realistic self appraisal, you are neither God nor a terrible person. Somewhere in between there is certainly a niche where you will feel comfortable. If you don't back away from responsibility and obligations and do not provoke people who are on your side, then you will "survive" this transit.

Transiting Mars in Square with your Uranus

from 07/22/2009 9:00:00 PM until: 07/25/2009 6:00:00 PM

Under this transit you will feel restless, impulsive behavior will make it difficult for you to follow the rules. Now you feel a need to go ahead and do whatever comes to mind. You could oppose authorities and attempt a mutiny. According to yourself you have the best ideas and are convinced that you can realize them. Take into account that your subjective impression of yourself may not necessarily conform to what other people think of you. This puts you in a position to deceive yourself. Don't be surprised if others object to your unpredictable behavior. Don't get upset about it, be thankful that they didn't throw you out of the game.

Possibly you are so wound up that you overreact and run the risk of causing an accident or make decisions that you regret the next day. Keep yourself within reasonable limits and concentrate on what you are doing.

Transiting Mars in Square with your Pluto

from 07/29/2009 7:00:00 PM until: 07/31/2009 1:00:00 AM

It won't be easy to get along with you during this time because you think you have to control everybody and everything. This may instigate opposition which your overconfidence has left you unprepared to deal with. It is important to apply your intellectual capacity to specific goals. It is more probable that your interests have a high priority, and you should be prepared for opposition to your egocentrism, your iron will and your stubbornness. This may even provoke defiant behavior on your part. Your hot temperament will make it difficult for you to use diplomacy to find compromises when conflicts arise. Your lack of consideration may leave you completely isolated. Be careful here, if you start violating the rights of other people you shouldn't be surprised if they defend themselves.

The meaning of the transiting Jupiter

Jupiter remains in each house for up to two years, depending on its size. Altogether one trip through the entire chart takes about 12 years.

Maybe you can experience positive developments in the effected houses, because Jupiter was always considered the great patron, protector and the messenger of good luck. The principle of expansion as well as striving for enhancement in every form are associated with Jupiter. However when it comes to expansion it can quickly become excessive which may be noticeable when it comes in the form of a weight gain. Generally its benevolent effects can lead to sluggishness.

The aspects of Jupiter in transit describe how your outlook on life can be influenced and how you see your role in the universe during this phase, because this planet also stands for the intellectual confrontation with your surroundings on a higher level.

Transiting Jupiter in your tenth house

from 07/01/2009 until: 08/01/2009

In this phase you will examine your plans concerning your career. Preoccupied with the way you want other people to see you, you are concerned with how you can best realize your responsibility for others. No matter what you do you will try to find meaning in it, and may even get involved in politics. Probably your boss has realized that you are reliable and that you take your responsibilities seriously, although you noticeably enjoy your work. Possibly you will be rewarded with a promotion or a pay rise. During this transit you can take a firm stand because you have thought about the issues long enough to eliminate the danger of people not taking you serious. Maybe you will get more involved in social issues and you may have already had some success in this area. Additionally, it should be possible for you to improve your relationship to your father, if you had problems.

Transiting Jupiter in Conjunction with your Mars

from 07/27/2009 6:00:00 PM until: 07/31/2009 1:00:00 AM

The transiting Jupiter allows Mars' energy, which is usually egocentric, to appear in a more friendly light. This period will make you feel energetic, such that no task will seem too large, or too difficult. Unfortunately, this may lead you to overestimate yourself. Be sure not to let your increased strength get you over your head and leave you disappointed in the end. If you take the initiative now, you can motivate others, because people like to follow you since you provide your projects with a far reaching background and enjoy explaining it to others. When you succeed in watching out for all the details, you may be capable of accomplishing a lot. You believe in your goal, which is the secret to your success.

You need a lot of freedom in this transit and hate to let yourself be restricted by authorities. This may seem pedantic and inhibiting, still it is important to consider carefully whether you are right before you get yourself into a conflict. If your own development is to be the first priority, you will never be completely free of restrictions.

Transiting Jupiter in Conjunction with your Saturn

from 07/08/2009 3:00:00 AM until: 07/28/2009 7:00:00 PM

Probably under this transit you may be interested in changing some structures of your life. If you have been putting up with a lot, fulfilling obligations and maintaining high achievement, you will want to break out and enjoy the lighter side of life. You need to overcome your inner inhibitions, explore new territories and generally further develop yourself.

If your life has been fairly easy up until now, you will be able to provide a spiritual background for your efforts. You will come to understand what you are working for and have to accept restrictions. Success is guaranteed because you don't go to work bitter, but with joy and self-confidence. In any case, this time should be put to productive use.

The meaning of the transiting Saturn

Saturn is seen as the "Evildoer" in classical Astrology. A more modern view is that it represents a challenge which presents you with an opportunity to develop. Its house position tells you in which area of life difficulties are likely to develop, where your weaknesses are, although it can also bring stability to a situation. In this sense Saturn presents you with the bill for your past behavior, whereby the intensity of the influence of the difficult transit depends on you. Usually it only makes you aware of limitations which you can accept.

Saturn's entire cycle through the chart takes about 28-30 years and culminates in the so-called "Saturn-Return", the phase in which Saturn reaches its natal chart position. This allows it to remain in each house for two or three years and in this time it is also retrograde. That means, if it enters an aspect to another planet within a house, it will be repeated to time more: The first encounter will call the problems to your attention, the return will intensify the problem and by the third meeting you should have enough strength and maturity to work on a constructive solution and end the conflict.

Finally, it should be emphasized once again that Saturnine experiences can be painful, but must not necessarily be, if you live in harmony with yourself and your environment.

Transiting Saturn in your fourth house

from 07/01/2009 until: 08/01/2009

This transit concerns itself with inner stability which should be present at home and can be restructured during this time, if it is necessary. If you have neglected to initiate changes when they were necessary, you may be startled by Saturn's drive to get things cleaned up. If you get along with your family and don't run away from conflicts, you shouldn't have any problems. Unfortunately, people tend to deceive themselves in this respect and then run into conflicts completely unprepared. This phase favors constructive new beginnings which will put you in harmony with your life and help you find an honest expression. If you aren't in need of it, you will be in a position to take your obligations at home and within the family more seriously and give others a feeling of security.

This transit may cause problems with your parents or maybe they have a problem, which has been waiting to be taken care of. Often parents of advanced age are brittle and are in need of care. This time quality could mark the beginning of such an obligation.

Transiting Saturn in Sextile with your Neptune

from 07/03/2009 10:00:00 PM until: 07/26/2009 12:00:00 PM

At this point fantasy and reality will be harmonious and in balance. Without giving up your dreams and allowing yourself to get dispirited and frustrated, you respect certain necessities, which no one may be denied. The ability to differentiate between visions and reality only adds to your strong faith. No one can cause you to waver in your belief, you are in the process of building a spiritual foundation on which you can rest for many years.

Serious considerations of inner processes may also include an objectified analysis based on the goals of creating some "order" in your spiritual life, discovering your spirituality without throwing your current way of life overboard, and achieving a deeper understanding of your hidden desires, hope and fears. The door to insights into yourself will be integrated into your everyday life. Now you will be able to successfully help others or to become active in a religious community. Maybe you will even work without expecting gratitude or reward. In any case due to Saturn's stabilizing influence this is the right time to think more seriously about dreams or other extrasensory abilities without being in danger of getting swept off your feet.

The meaning of the transiting Uranus

The transit of Uranus through your chart makes it possible for you to constantly get to know new aspects of your personality. That may be connected to some of the surprises, which the effects of Uranus will unfold; usually unannounced. Wherever Uranus is found you will be confronted with sudden developments which demand the ability to react with flexibility. You may be experiencing boredom because you have a need to show your other side and to develop your individuality. The drive for independence can become so strong that you surprise yourself and everyone else with unusual actions.

Any discussion of Uranus in transit at this time must mention that it has been in a conjunction with Neptune for some time and that the effects of these two planets are often difficult to combine. This conjunction has been located in the sign of Capricorn for several years, which is associated with political connotations. During this period of time political structures were dissolved (Neptune) and that happened in fall of East Germany rather suddenly (Uranus). These days Uranus moved on into the sign of Aquarius.

The harmonious transits of Uranus will motivate you to turn your attention to the future and to do your best to live in a society characterized by liberty and solidarity.

Transiting Uranus in your eleventh house

from 07/01/2009 until: 08/01/2009

Within the next seven years your friends as well as your preferred activities could be completely transformed. In the eleventh house, the home of Aquarius, Uranus is at home too. This house is linked to the future but also to your ideals and dreams. Maybe a vision of your future is developing at this moment and is showing you the possibility of leading a life with a completely different orientation. If you feel that these changes would do you good, then let them become more concrete. Allow yourself to react to other "revolutionary" tendencies with more flexibility. Basically, it's all about getting rid of out-dated behavior. People who come into your life will cause you to try out new behavior. With Uranus in its own house it shouldn't be difficult for you to feel up to the challenges of this process.

The meaning of the transiting Neptune

The transits of Neptune are not easy to see through. There are many levels on which it can manifest itself, whereby it remains dependent on the state of consciousness of the individual person. Challenging transits can cause unstable people to feel helpless and insecure, which may lead some to seek help in drugs or in institutions. The positive effects show true sympathy as well as a general sensitivity for everything happening around you. It is also important to be aware that Neptune also creates illusions. Until 1997 Neptune was in Capricorn, where it has been forming a conjunction with Uranus for years. Now it moved on to Aquarius; many people associate its entry into Aquarius with the beginning of the age of Aquarius.

Its transit through a house will take 14-18 years which should not mean that it exercises uninterrupted influence and that you will be unable to realistically perceive the effected area. Although you will probably notice that with the transition into the next house, you will suddenly be able to judge the events of the previous house more objectively or emotions which had no justification will simply dissolve.

Transiting Neptune in your tenth house

from 07/01/2009 until: 08/01/2009

This phase of your development concerns your professional orientation and your conduct in public. Possibly it is difficult for you to follow one path consequently and to believe in your goals. As is always the case when Neptune is in the game, you first have to find out what you can achieve under the given circumstances and separate realistic goals from dreams. Of course this isn't intended as a general condemnation of dreams, you should allow yourself to dream once in a while, even in the context of your profession, still in the house of Saturn decisions are generally made on the basis of reason and that isn't exactly Neptune's style. Maybe you will be involved helping others get back on their feet or you find some other sensible activity. In any case you will recognize the true meaning of your work and that it can help you lead a satisfying life.

Transiting Neptune in Conjunction with your Saturn

from 07/02/2009 8:00:00 AM until: 07/31/2009 1:00:00 AM

Under this transit you will experience how the structures of your life have reached a state of saturation and therefore, under the right circumstances, may dissolve completely. This would give you the opportunity to start all over again and improve your attitude toward life. If things go well you could be freed from old fears and inhibitions which will cause you to see your responsibility to society in a new light. This would also be the end of a development which is a great concern of yours in this period of your life. Before your new self confidence leads you to live independently, you will miss having things the way you are used to and will feel insecure. If you have been serious and responsible, you will now feel unusual needs, which you probably won't feel comfortable allowing yourself to fulfill. Thinking about work is not the focal point, but the subtle order of your internal life. It's up to you whether you avoid your responsibilities unable to keep yourself under control, or if you manage to get over your addiction to work in favor of intellectual development which will give your imagination more space. Especially your relationship to your father could improve during this transit. You are no longer willing to let yourself be pushed around, let others tell you what to do nor are you prepared to accept restrictions. Because you have the necessary sensitivity, you will have rough confrontations with your "Old Man".

The meaning of the transiting Pluto

Pluto is a planet of violent regeneration. It rules Scorpio, where it has been resting for several years. In 1997 Pluto moved on to Sagittarius. As the most distant planet known to man, it remains in a house for up to 25 years. Due to this time frame, its transit aspects are of particular interest. During the life of an average person, Pluto will travel through three or four houses, this might convey in which areas of life you will make the most extreme experiences.

In the mythology of India, Pluto corresponds to the goddess Shiva, capable of destroying everything in order to rebuild. Pluto brings death but also life. This does not necessarily refer to the physical death, but usually means philosophies of life and forms of conduct which are simply no longer useful and are ready to "die". In its transit through the houses, Pluto will create violent changes. As a demonstration of its effects remember that Pluto was discovered in 1930. At this time the first atoms were being split, this led to the catastrophes of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, which marked the end of the second world war.

Generally Pluto transits should motivate you to rethink your conduct and eventually make changes before you are forced to.

Transiting Pluto in your seventh house

from 07/01/2009 until: 08/01/2009

The seventh house is the house of relationships. Humanistic Astrology assumes that conformity and contradictions are tested here. Pluto will provoke excitement in all of your relationships during its long trip through this house, especially if it forms an aspect to another planet. Possibly you have an inclination to want to exercise power over people and if that is the case, some day you may be forced to reconsider if you want to continue initiating endeavors without the support of others. Relationships lacking a firm foundation could break up completely, whereas others may be intensified. The trick is to work out a concept for relations with others which both sides can relate to. At the end of this transit you should have learned your lesson about cooperation.

Transiting Pluto in Square with your Venus

from 07/01/2009 until: 07/31/2009 1:00:00 AM

Probably your relationships will be subject to all the pressure and changes that go along with it. In your search for intense and passionate relationships, you don't take time to consider if the person involved is right for you or if you are compatible. Jealousy, conflicts or power struggles could arise in your partnership and maybe even lead to a separation. There is a danger that you will end a long term relationship due to an affair and then regret it later. Don't give in to your drives and addiction to amusement, but try to talk openly, even if it is especially difficult at this time.

Don't bear grudges and avoid always having to set the tone when you are out with friends or losing your best friends could become your motivation to change yourself. Also you should be prepared to have different values after this transit.
